

The Kevin M. Eidt Scholarship Fund was established in memory of Kevin, an Honors Program computer science major in the Boston College Carroll School of Management class of '00, who died January 23, 1997 of cardiac arrest during an intramural basketball game in his freshman year. The Fund will apply 100% of the proceeds from this event to scholarships for the 2016 academic year, in particular to the Boston College scholarships.

Although destined to have only one semester at BC, Kevin was able to make a significant impact on campus. He was posthumously awarded the Nicholas H Woods Leadership award sponsored by the Office of Student Development. The Liturgy Arts Group dedicated their "I Want To Praise Your Name" CD in his memory. The Student Activities department has named the annual men and women's intramural basketball trophy in Kevin's name. In 2009 Boston College EMS, an all volunteer, student run, quick response emergency medical service established the Kevin M. Eidt Excellence Award presented annually to the most outstanding member of the organization.

Since its inception in 1997 the Fund has awarded over $1,600,000 in scholarships to students at institutions such as Amherst, Boston College, Bucknell, Carnegie Mellon, Columbia, Dartmouth, Fairfield, Georgetown, Harvard, Holy Cross, Johns Hopkins, Notre Dame, Rhode Island, Tufts, William & Mary and Wisconsin.

There are currently two scholarships in Kevin's name at Boston College, one for a member of the CSOM Honors Program and another for a member of the Emerging Leader Program. In addition two freshmen at Boston College, who graduated from Norwalk High School in 2015, are recipients of Kevin's scholarships.
